The Gentle Art of Blessing will enable you to

- spread an atmosphere of kindness, peace and healing wherever you go
- reverse negative energy, whatever its source
- feel empowered
- attract goodness, joy and love into your own and the life of others

Pierre Pradervand has worked, travelled and lived for decades in over 40 countries of the five continents. In the last 19 years, he started focusing on writing and running his personal development courses. His main aim is to make the world into one that works for all. In this spirit, he launched, with a friend, in early 2009 the new Blessing Circles for world healing (already active in five countries). Thousands already know his regular review column in Cygnus Magazine and his book "The Gentle Art of Blessing", which won the 2010 Gold Nautilus Award for Best Spirituality Book. It teaches how to develop a down-to-earth approach to applied spirituality, a deep and lasting calm, tools to ground one's spiritual practice in everyday life, and methods to explore the power of positive expectations and unconditional love.

The aim of the workshop is to allow you to develop simply an awareness that is constantly centered in love, even in the most trying circumstances. Pierre will present his discovery of blessing as a tool for healing and its worldwide impact (including physical healing) and will teach you the importance of loving oneself, the practice of blessing as gratitude, and the great Cosmic Yes. He will also teach you how to create and run a blessing circle in your locality. He will use simple and powerful exercises and meditations throughout to lead you through the process of opening yourself to healing and blessing.

'To bless,' says Pierre, 'means to wish, unconditionally and from the deepest chamber of your heart, unrestricted good for others and events. To bless is to acknowledge the omnipresent, universal beauty hidden from material eyes; it is to activate that law of attraction which, from the furthest reaches of the universe, will bring into your life exactly what you need to experience and enjoy.'
